14TH July 2005

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

British version of American valuation software

San Diego based Quantum Leap owner Thom Underwood, FGA, MGA announces that Neil Rose, of Gem-Ro in Leeds, has brought to an end his representation of Professional Appraisal Software (PAS) in the UK. AppraiserTech will now handle distribution and support.

Says Rose; "This follows four very enjoyable years of working with Mr Thom Underwood to communicate the unrivalled benefits of his appraisal program. "

AppraiserTech, owned by Adrian Smith FGA, will become the new PAS representative in the United Kingdom as of July 15th. Smith, an appraiser, has been working with PAS for three years and has designed specialised forms and processes for PAS users. His company, AppraiserTech will now focus solely on software designed for valuers. Smith said, " We are delighted to be associated with Quantum Leap and have total faith in PAS. This British version of the software is probably the most advanced valuation package available, offering unparalleled flexibility, features and stability."

States Rose, "We would like to take this opportunity to wish both Thom and AppraiserTech the very best of luck with this valuable service and would like to place on record our pleasure and pride at having dealt with all the UK users."

United Kingdom PAS users can reach Adrian Smith on 01738 783603 Email: info@appraisertech.com
